I Once Was Lost, but Now I Have Found it.

Where? At my door. At the Eagle Grocery. What in the world is it, my dear? It is at the Eagle Grocery, a mammoth stock of Groceries, and at the lowest prices you ever heard of. The Eagle has been reading the papers and kept posted on what was being offered for sale. They don't say anything about Terbacker and Candy, and other good things like that. It is not pickle dishes you want now, it is Candy. The Eagle has 2,000 pounds of candy for sale cheap.

Christmas committees are invited to call and get my prices. Remember the place, on the big corner, just east of First National Bank.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Nelly E. Taylor, contestant, against timber culture entry No. 1287, made December 14th, 1888, for the northeast quarter of section 27, township 19 north, range 21 west 6th P. M., by Ashtman C. Looker, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Ashtman C. Looker has failed to plant tree seeds, cuttings or trees, and cultivate the same since the year 1893. Affiant says that at no time has the said Looker planted or caused to be planted on said tract, more than 34 acres to trees, tree seeds or cuttings, and said three and one-half acres were planted prior to 1893, and said Looker has wholly failed to plant any trees, tree seeds or cuttings, or to cause the same to be done during the years 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898 and 1899, to present date, and has failed to cultivate, or cause to be cultivated, said 34 acres since 1893 to present date, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation, at 10 o'clock a. m., on November 29th, 1899, before the register and receiver, U. S. land office, at Broken Bow, Neb.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed Sept. 19, 1899, set forth facts which show that after due diligence, personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication. sept28-6t
